>did someone in legal confirm that? or are we just trying to not ask too many qs?

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:00:53 PST):

>I didn't ask questions :D

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:01:31 PST):

>but this is what OpenAI does with GPT3, what Google does with PALM, and what Deepmind does with Chinchilla

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:01:43 PST):

>so we will do it to ^^

>i think you should !

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:26:39 PST):

>also note that we are only using a fraction of libgen

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:27:12 PST):

>there are multiple splits in libgen: sci-tech (the real libgen), fiction (mostly novels, easy to parse, what we use), and sci-mag

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:27:20 PST):

>sci-mag probably bad, just PDF publications

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:27:33 PST):

>fiction is great but ~700GB only

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:27:43 PST):

>sci-tech is the real thing, will require more time to process

Melanie Kambadur (11/28/2022 09:27:47 PST):
>yeah the fiction bit is particularly interesting right since we're not in any discussions to license fiction data right now, right?

Melanie Kambadur (11/28/2022 09:27:52 PST):
>at least AFAIK

Guillaume Lample (11/28/2022 09:28:15 PST):
>not that i know of
